

Unlicensed Interactive Gambling Activity

This notice is hereby issued by the Financial Services Authority of Seychelles (“FSA/ Authority”) in accordance with its powers to issue public statements, as awarded by section 28 of the Financial Services Authority Act, 2013.

The Authority’s attention has been drawn to the activities of a company operating under the name “JackpotCity Casino” with the following website <https://www.jackpotcitycasino.com/>. The FSA hereby would like to inform the public and all persons that JackpotCity Casino is not licensed by the FSA to conduct interactive gambling services (online live casino and slot games) in and/or from within the Seychelles.

The FSA Seychelles urges members of the public to exercise caution if soliciting or partaking in any services or products being offered by JackpotCity Casino.

The FSA reminds the public that the Authority bears no responsibility should persons continue to utilize or engage in services or products provided by the aforementioned company, as they are not licensed by the FSA. If consumers engage the services of any Gambling company not licensed by the FSA, they are not protected under the Seychelles Gambling Act and other relevant laws, which govern such entities licensed in the Seychelles.

The Financial Services Authority

21 November 2022